Court of Appeals, State of Michigan

ORDER

Emily Ann Lennen v Todd Laine Lennen

Docket No. 355177

LC No. 2009-006287-DM

Christopher M. Murray, Chief Judge, acting under MCR 7.203(F)(1), orders:

The claim of appeal is DISMISSED IN PART for lack of jurisdiction. The September 29, 2020 order is final and appealable by right as a postjudgment order granting attorney fees and costs, MCR 7.202(6)(a)(iv), and the appeal is limited to that portion of the order, MCR 7.203(A)(1). The Court does not have jurisdiction of an appeal of right from any other portions of the September 29, 2020 postjudgment order, and the claim of appeal is therefore partially dismissed as to all other portions of the order. More specifically, the portion of the September 29, 2020 order addressing defendant-appellant's suspended parenting time is not appealable by right pursuant to MCR 7.202(6)(a)(iii), which defines a final order in a domestic relations action as a "postjudgment order that, as to a minor, grants or denies a motion to change legal custody, physical custody or domicile." (Emphasis added.)

The partial dismissal is without prejudice to appellant's filing a late appeal under MCR 7.205(G) as to any portions of the September 29, 2020 order that are not appealable by right, provided that such a filing meets all of the requirements under the court rules and is not time-barred."
