IN THE MICHIGAN COURT OF APPEALS

ORDER

Re: John R Weeks Jr v Sara Kristin Doucette
Docket No. 268585
L.C. No. 2004-701403-DC

William C. Whitbeck, Chief Judge, acting under MCR 7.203(F)(1) and 7.216(A)(10), orders:

The claim of appeal from the February 15, 2006 judgment of custody is DISMISSED for lack of jurisdiction since the amount of child support owed had not been set before appellant claimed his appeal. MCR 2.604(A), 7.202(6)(a)(i), and 7.203(A)(1). A judgment that reserves the question of child support, parenting time, insurance, or other issues is not a final order, so it cannot be appealed as a matter of right. Helms v Helms, 185 Mich App 680, 685; 462 NW2d 812 (1990). The filing of the March 22, 2006 order setting the amount of child support owed does not change this determination as the case does not qualify for our Supreme Court's policy to correct mere ministerial errors because the child support decision was made after the filing of the claim of appeal. Appellant, however, may still claim an appeal as a matter of right from the March 22, 2006 order so long as he files his claim within 21 days of its entry. MCR 2.604(A), 7.202(6)(a)(i), and 7.203(A)(1).
