Docket No. 279143

LC No. 06-002201-AA

Jane M. Beckering
Presiding Judge

Stephen L. Borrello

Alton T. Davis
Judges

The motion for immediate consideration is GRANTED.

The motion for access to audio recording of oral argument is GRANTED according to the following terms:

1. The Clerk's Office will arrange a time during which the audiotape of oral argument will be played, and such time will be communicated in a notice that is sent to all parties with this order.
2. Individuals having notice of this motion and this order will be permitted to attend and take notes.
3. Second-generation audiotape recordings may not be made during the playing of the original audiotape of oral argument.
4. A transcript of the oral argument is not prepared by the Court for internal use, and a transcript will not be provided or certified by the Court for external use. Upon notice to the Court, however, the moving party may secure a transcript by engaging the services of a court reporter who attends the playing of the tape for the purpose of creating a transcript.
