Judges

Appellant's request to postpone the July 2, 2008, oral argument of this matter and reschedule it to a later date is DENIED. If the case is ultimately permitted to proceed before this Court as described below, this panel will rule on the merits of the appeal without oral argument, the panel have unanimously determined that "the briefs and record adequately present the facts and legal arguments, and the court's deliberation would not be significantly aided by oral argument." MCR 7.214(E)(1)(b).

This Court GRANTS appellant's request for additional time to secure an order of the United States Bankruptcy Court, Western District of Michigan, that either lifts any stay that may apply, directs that this appeal may proceed despite any stay that may apply, or dismisses the bankruptcy proceeding altogether.

Appellant is directed to file the above described bankruptcy court order with the Clerk's Office of this Court by July 18, 2008. Failure to secure such order by July 18, 2008, may result in adjournment of the case from this panel and dismissal of this appeal without prejudice to the case being reopened at some future date upon receipt of the notification described above.
