Judges

The Court orders that appellees/cross-appellants' motion for sanctions for vexatious proceedings is GRANTED. MCR 7.211(C)(8); MCR 7.216(C)(1). The Court finds that the appeal filed by plaintiff in these consolidated cases was vexatious. See Meagher v Wayne State Univ, 222 Mich App 700, 730-731; 565 NW2d 401 (1997). Pursuant to MCR 7.216(C)(2), this matter is remanded to the trial court for a determination of the amount of actual damages, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred by appellees/cross-appellants as a result of the vexatious appeal filed by plaintiff. In its discretion, the trial court may also assess punitive damages in an amount not to exceed the actual damages. MCR 7.216(C)(2).
