ORDER

Presiding Judge

People of MI v Joseph Kenyette Jones

Michael J. Talbot

Docket No. 299990

Cynthia Diane Stephens
Judges

LC No. 10-002005-FH

The Court orders that the motion to remand pursuant to MCR 7.211(C)(1) is GRANTED IN PART, and the matter is remanded to the trial court so that defendant-appellant may file, within 14 days, a motion for a new trial, limited to the issue of whether defense counsel was ineffective for not requesting an instruction on accident. Proceedings on remand are limited to that issue as raised in the motion to remand. The motion to remand based on defendant-appellant's request to retain new counsel is DENIED.

Defendant-appellant is to file with this Court a copy of any motion and any supporting brief filed in the trial court within 14 days of the Clerk's certification of this order. The trial court is to hear and decide the matter within 56 days of the Clerk's certification of this order. Defendant-appellant must also file with the Clerk of this Court copies of all orders entered on remand within 14 days after entry.

The trial court is to make findings of fact and a determination on the record. The trial court is to cause a transcript of any hearing on remand to be prepared and filed within 21 days after completion of the proceedings.

Defendant-appellant may file a supplemental brief pertaining to the issue raised on remand within 21 days after entry of the trial court's order deciding the matter or 21 days after the transcript of the hearing on remand is filed, whichever is later. Appellee may file a supplemental brief in response.

This Court retains jurisdiction in the cause, and the time for proceeding with the appeal in this Court begins upon issuance of an order in the trial court that finally disposes of the remand proceedings. Nevertheless, the time for proceeding with the appeal begins 14 days from the date of certification of this order if remand pleadings are not filed in the trial court within the 14-day period.

Judge Talbot would deny the motion to remand.
