On the Court's own motion, this appeal is DISMISSED as moot. See MCR 7.211(C)(2)(c). It is manifest from the parties' briefs that, due to circumstances occurring after the appeal was filed, the appeal has become moot since it now involves only "abstract questions of law that do not rest upon existing facts or rights." B P 7 v Bureau of State Lottery, 231 Mich App 356, 359; 586 NW2d 117(1998).
