The Court orders that the motion to remand is DENIED for failure to meet the requirements of MCR 7.211(C)(1)(a). Defendant does not provide a true offer of proof regarding facts to be established at a hearing on remand as contemplated by MCR 7.211(C)(1)(a). That provision does not contemplate a remand for general exploration of a matter, but rather that the party seeking a remand or the party's appellate counsel would first undertake investigation and present specific facts the party seeks to establish on remand. The "offer of proof" provided in support of the motion to remand provides no indication of such investigation or of specific facts to be established on remand.
