PETITIONERS MOTION FOR WAIVER OF FEES AND COURT COSTS

NOW COMES Eddie Lee Thompson and Chitara Monea Thompson, Petitioners in Propria Persona and Moves this Court for waiver of fees and costs, pursuant to MCR 2.002(D), MCR 2.119(G)(3)(a) and MCL 600.2963(7). In support Petitioners states the following:

Petitioners have an actual case and controversy that must be addressed on the merits.

The Petitioner is currently unemployed and has no stable source of income that may be provided to defray all court fees required by this Court.

Petitioner have stated a claim within the petition that only the Court can review and grant relief accordingly. Therefore, Petitioners ask that the fees be waived under the standard of People v. Dunbar, 264 Mich. App. 240, 254-255 [Oct. 2004]. See also James v. Strange, 92 S. Ct. 2027, 2031 (1972) (where the court often has voided state statutes and practices which deny to accessed indigents the means to present effective defenses [or cases] in courts of law).

RELIEF REQUESTED

WHEREFORE, Petitioners relief is that the Court waive fees and costs so that their Power Point Presentation may be reviewed on the merits.
