Docket No. 310818

LC No. 11-035582-FC

Patrick M. Meter
Presiding Judge

Stephen L. Borrello
Judges

The Court orders that the motion to remand is GRANTED, and the case is REMANDED to the trial court to allow defendant to file a motion for resentencing based on his claim of error in the scoring of offense variable 7 (OV 7) of the sentencing guidelines. We also direct the trial court's attention to the holding in People v Hunt, 290 Mich App 317, 325-326; 810 NW2d 588 (2010), that "only the defendant's actual participation," as opposed to the conduct of others which the defendant did not take part in or encourage, should be considered in scoring OV 7.

Defendant shall initiate the proceedings on remand within 14 days of the Clerk's certification of this order. The Court retains jurisdiction and the time for proceeding with the appeal in this Court shall begin to run upon issuance of an order in the trial court that disposes of the remand proceedings. Defendant shall file with this Court a copy of any motion and supporting brief filed in the trial court within 14 days after the Clerk's certification of this order. Defendant shall also file with the Clerk of this Court copies of all orders entered on remand within 14 days after entry. The trial court shall hear and decide the matter within 56 days of the Clerk's certification of this order. The trial court shall make findings of fact and a determination on the record. The trial court shall cause a transcript of any hearing on remand to be prepared and filed within 21 days after completion of the proceedings.

Defendant may file a supplemental brief pertaining to the issues raised on remand within 21 days after entry of the trial court's order deciding the matter or 21 days after the transcript of the hearing is filed, whichever is later. Plaintiff may file a supplemental brief in response.

The time for proceedings with the appeal shall begin to run 14 days after the date this order is certified if a motion to initiate the proceedings on remand is not filed in the trial court within that 14-day period.

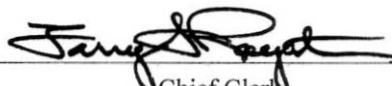

Meter, J., would deny the motion to remand.
