In lieu of granting leave to appeal, and on the Court's own motion, this matter is REMANDED to the trial court for the limited purpose of correcting the judgments of sentence in Macomb Circuit Case Nos. 2013-000061-FH & 2013-000063-FH. As the prosecution has acknowledged, defendant is entitled to amended judgments of sentence "to reflect what the trial court ordered." In each case, the trial court ordered defendant to pay restitution, attorney fees, state costs, and crime victims' fees as conditions of parole. Yet both judgments of sentence erroneously state that "[t]he due date for payment is [the] date of sentencing." On remand, the trial court shall DELETE that portion of each judgment of sentence stating that "[t]he due date for payment is [the] date of sentencing," and shall AMEND each judgment of sentence to specify that the restitution, attorney fees, state costs, and crime victims' fees are payable upon defendant's parole from prison. Copies of the amended judgments of sentence shall then be transmitted to the Department of Corrections.

In all other respects, the delayed application for leave to appeal is DENIED for lack of merit in the grounds presented.
