Judges

This Court's opinion and order entered December 26, 2013, conditionally reversed the allowance of the final accounting and remanded for a hearing to address respondent's two objections to determine if they were frivolous as defined by statute so as to support the award of sanctions. On remand, the parties entered into a settlement whereby the objections were waived and the parties consented to a final accounting. The settlement having rendered the remaining issues on appeal moot, this matter is DISMISSED. The Court does not retain jurisdiction.
