In this Court's opinion and order entered January 30, 2014, we remanded to the trial court to make specific findings of fact regarding which factors found in Sparks v Sparks, 440 Mich 141; 485 MNW2d 893 (1992) it considered in dividing the marital property, to make factual findings with respect to plaintiff's $52,000 early retirement buyout and whether it was considered marital property, and to clarify the basis for its decision to exclude survivorship benefits from the judgment of divorce. On remand, the trial court issued an order stating that the "parties have settled the issues in controversy, resolving all issues on remand" and further awarded defendant a survivor's benefit in the original 50% of value of "the Defendant's" [sic] retirement plan as set forth in the parties' 2001 judgment of divorce. The settlement and order having rendered the remaining issues on appeal moot, this matter is DISMISSED. The Court does not retain jurisdiction.
