The Court orders that this matter is REMANDED to the trial court for an evidentiary hearing and decision whether defendant-appellant was denied the effective assistance of counsel. People v Ginther, 390 Mich 436; 212 NW2d 922 (1993). The proceedings on remand are limited to the issues raised in defendant-appellant's brief on appeal.

The trial court shall hear and decide the matter within 54 days after the Clerk's certification of this order. The trial court shall make findings of fact and a determination on the record and cause a transcript of any hearing on remand to be prepared and filed within 21 days after completion of the proceedings.

Defendant-appellant shall file with this Court a copy of any motion and supporting brief filed in the trial court within 14 days after the Clerk's certification of this order. Defendant-appellant shall also file with the Clerk of this Court copies of all orders entered on remand within 14 days after entry.

The Court retains jurisdiction and the time for proceeding with the appeal in this Court shall begin to run upon issuance of an order in the trial court that disposes of the post-conviction proceedings. If remand pleadings are not filed in the trial court, the time for proceeding with the appeal begins 14 days from the date of certification of this order.

Defendant-appellant may file a supplemental brief pertaining to the issues raised on remand within 21 days after entry of the trial court's order deciding the matter or 21 days after the transcript of the hearing is filed, whichever is later. Appellee may file a supplemental brief in response.
