At oral argument in this Court, the prosecutor admitted that, contrary to a witness's testimony at trial, the witness, in advance of trial, had received an undisclosed deal in exchange for his testimony. But, because it is possible that the prosecutor's failure to disclose the details of the arrangement is nevertheless harmless, and that determination should first be made by the trial court, we REMAND this matter to the trial court to conduct a hearing and make any appropriate findings on the issue whether the error was harmless.

The trial court shall conduct the hearing within 56 days of the Clerk's certification of this order. The trial court shall make any required findings of fact and conclusions of law on the record. The trial court shall cause a transcript of any hearing on remand to be prepared and filed within 21 days after completion of the proceedings, along with any pleadings, briefs, and orders filed on remand.

Defendant may file a supplemental brief pertaining to the issues raised on remand within 21 days after entry of the trial court's order disposing of the remand or 21 days after the transcript of the hearing is filed, whichever is later. Plaintiff may file a supplemental brief in response within 21 days thereafter.

This order has immediate effect. MCR 7.215(F)(2). We retain jurisdiction.
