Docket No. 318262

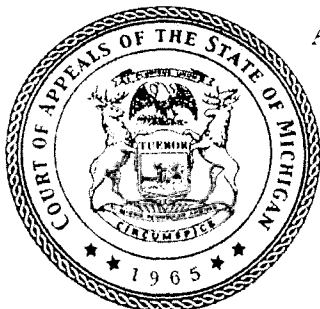

LC No. 2012-242058-FH

Judges

The Court orders that the motion to remand pursuant to MCR 7.211(C)(1) is DENIED. Defendant-appellant concedes that whether his trial counsel was ineffective can be decided based on the existing record. In addition, defendant-appellant's challenges to his attorney's conduct involve trial strategy decisions and defendant-appellant has not shown that he has evidence that can allow him to overcome the presumption that his attorney's strategic decisions were reasonable.
