Judges

The Court orders that the motion to remand pursuant to MCR 7.211(C)(1) is DENIED. Defendant-appellant has failed to properly demonstrate that an initial decision of the trial court or further factual development of the record is appropriate at this time. However, any objections to the scoring of the sentencing guidelines raised in the motion to remand have now been preserved for appellate review, provided that defendant-appellant did not waive any of those objections at the time of sentencing, MCR 6.429(C).
