Docket No. 320935

LC No. 14-001988-AW

Judges

The motion for immediate consideration is GRANTED.

Plaintiff has not made a particularized showing of irreparable harm, an indispensable requirement for a preliminary injunction, and so, was not entitled to one. Michigan AFSCME Council 25 v Woodhaven-Brownstown Sch Dist, 293 Mich App 143; 809 NW2d 444 (2011). Furthermore, plaintiff organization has not presented any authority for the proposition that the organization itself has a clear legal right to performance of the duty sought, one element that must be established for a writ of mandamus to be issued. Morales v Parole Bd, 260 Mich App 29, 41-42; 676 NW2d 221 (2003), lv den 470 Mich 885; 682 NW2d 90 (2004). Because we DENY the application for leave to appeal on those grounds, we do not reach the question whether the city clerk had a duty to comply with MCL 168.646a(2).
