Michael F. Gadola
Judges

The Court orders that the complaint is DENIED. The charge for solid waste removal service is an exercise of defendants' authority to regulate the public health, safety, and welfare, and is proportionate to the necessary cost of the service. Bolt v City of Lansing, 459 Mich 152, 161-162 (1998); Wheeler v Shelby Twp, 265 Mich App 657, 664-666 (2005). As such, it is a valid user fee, which is not affected by Const 1963, art 9, § 31.
