The Court orders that in lieu of granting the delayed application for leave to appeal, this case is REMANDED to the trial court to correct the indication of the basis for the fourth-degree criminal sexual conduct conviction in the judgment of sentence. MCR 7.205(E)(2). Specifically, the trial court shall enter an amended judgment of sentence without the erroneous indication that this conviction is based on the use of force or coercion. In all other respects, the delayed application for leave to appeal is DENIED for lack of merit in the grounds presented.

The Court further orders that the motion to remand is DENIED.

We do not retain jurisdiction.
