

Court of Appeals, State of Michigan

ORDER

Michael J Radler v Judith M Radler

Docket No. 326810

LC No. 09-005486-DO

Michael J. Talbot, Chief Judge, acting under MCR 7.203(F)(1), orders:

The claim of appeal is DISMISSED for lack of jurisdiction because the March 18, 2015 judgment of divorce is not a final judgment appealable of right. MCR 7.202(6)(a); MCR 7.203(A). The judgment of divorce is not a final judgment under MCR 7.202(6)(a)(i) because it does not dispose of all the claims or fully adjudicate the rights and liabilities of the parties as to those claims where it leaves the matter of division of the relevant household furniture, furnishings, and personal effects unresolved by merely providing for the trial court to decide that matter at a future point if the parties do not reach an agreement. At this time, appellant may seek to appeal the March 18, 2015 order by filing a delayed application for leave to appeal under MCR 7.205(G). Alternatively, appellant could properly file a claim of appeal after the trial court enters a final judgment or order under MCR 7.202(6)(a)(i) that fully disposes of the relevant unresolved matters in this case.
