

Court of Appeals, State of Michigan

ORDER

Curtis Fuller v Patricia Caruso

Docket No. 329033

LC No. 15-000029-MP

Christopher M. Murray, Chief Judge Pro Tem, acting under MCR 7.211(E), orders:

On the Court's own motion, the claim of appeal is DISMISSED because appellant, a prisoner under the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections, filed the claim of appeal even though he owes an outstanding balance in Curtis Fuller v Glenda Gordon, Docket Number 282259, a prior civil case he filed in this Court while a prisoner of the Department. A prisoner who is under the Department's jurisdiction cannot file another civil appeal or original action until the prisoner pays the outstanding balance owed in an earlier civil appeal or original action filed while under the Department's jurisdiction. MCL 600.2963(8).

The motion to discharge an illegal debt is DENIED because it lacks any arguable legal merit. In this regard, the Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) pertaining to the sale of goods in commercial transactions plainly has no applicability in the present context.

The motions to waive fees and remand are DISMISSED as moot.
