Judges

The Court orders that the motion for disclosure of sealed documents to counsel and to hold appeal in abeyance pending production of the documents is GRANTED only to the extent that this matter is REMANDED to the trial court.

On remand, the trial court shall conduct an in camera review of the sealed documents pursuant to People v Stanaway, 446 Mich 643, 684; 521 NW2d 557 (1994), and issue an order identifying which, if any, of the documents are relevant to the complainant's general veracity and/or to any accusations of sexual abuse she has made as to any persons, and shall within 7 days after the order provide those documents to counsel for each party. The trial court shall make findings sufficient for meaningful appellate review and return all of the sealed documents to the Court of Appeals. MCR 6.201(C).

The trial court is to hear and decide the matter within 35 days of the Clerk's certification of this order. The trial court is to make findings of fact and a determination on the record. The trial court is to cause a transcript of any hearing on remand to be prepared and filed within 21 days after completion of the proceedings.

This Court retains jurisdiction in the cause, and the time for proceeding with the appeal in this Court begins upon issuance of an order in the trial court that finally disposes of the remand proceedings or the filing of the transcript of any hearings, whichever is later. If a party's brief on appeal discloses the content of the released documents, the brief (or the relevant portion of it) shall be filed under seal.
