

Court of Appeals, State of Michigan

ORDER

People of MI v Clifton Deshawn Jones

Docket No. 332425

LC No. 15-009823-01-FC

Michael J. Talbot, Chief Judge, acting under MCR 7.211(C)(7) and MCR 7.211(E)(2), orders:

The prosecutor's confession of error is accepted and APPROVED. At the sentencing hearing on March 29, 2016, the trial court determined that the amended information to charge defendant as a fourth-offense habitual offender had been untimely filed. The court sentenced defendant on the record as a third-offense habitual offender, yet the April 21, 2016 amended judgment of sentence reflects that he was sentenced as a fourth-offense habitual offender. The matter is REMANDED for the limited purpose of the entry of an amended judgment of sentence reflecting that defendant was sentenced as a third-offense habitual offender.

The Court retains no further jurisdiction.
