

Court of Appeals, State of Michigan

ORDER

Grand Traverse County Land Bank Authority v Verizon Wireless

Docket No. 332804

LC No. 2015-031276-CH

Michael J. Kelly
Presiding Judge

Judges

The Court orders that the motion to dismiss appellee Verizon Wireless (Verizon) is DENIED because it has not advanced any permissible ground for seeking partial dismissal of this appeal under MCR 7.211(C)(2). Whether Verizon has any interest in this appeal, particularly whether its interests could be implicated by any relief granted to appellant if it prevails in this appeal, is a matter that goes to the merits of this appeal rather than supporting a motion to dismiss as to Verizon. We note that Verizon has no obligation to file a brief on appeal, so it is free not to do so if it is confident that it lacks an interest in the outcome of this appeal.
