

Court of Appeals, State of Michigan

ORDER

People of MI v Andrew Broadnax

Docket No. 332847

LC No. 13-001249-FC

Michael J. Talbot, Chief Judge, acting under MCR 7.203(F)(1), orders:

The delayed application for leave to appeal is DISMISSED for failure to pursue the case in conformity with the rules. MCR 7.201(B)(3) and 7.216(A)(10). The Clerk of this Court provided notice regarding the nature of the defects in this filing, and the defects were not corrected in a timely manner by providing this Court with the $375 entry fee or motion to waive fees, prisoner account statement and affidavit of indigency. Additionally, defendant failed to provide this Court with five copies of the lower court order appealed from, an application and supporting brief, a statement of facts explaining the delay in timely filing the application, and a proof of service regarding the same. Dismissal is without prejudice to whatever other relief may be available consistent with the Court Rules.
