Docket No. 333969

LC No. 15-007396-FH

The motion to re-issue or amend order of remand is GRANTED as follows. This case is REMANDED to the trial court so that defendant may bring a new motion for a new trial based on the alleged ineffective assistance of trial counsel underlying the motion to remand with the motion for a new trial to be decided by the trial court on its merits.

Defendant shall initiate the proceedings on remand by filing an appropriate motion in the trial court within 14 days of the date of this order. The Court retains jurisdiction and the time for proceeding with the appeal in this Court shall begin to run upon issuance of an order in the trial court that disposes of the remand proceedings. Defendant shall file with this Court a copy of any motion and supporting brief filed in the trial court within 14 days after the date of this order. Defendant shall also file with the Clerk of this Court copies of all orders entered on remand within 14 days after entry. The trial court shall hear and decide the matter within 56 days of the date of this order. The trial court shall make an appropriate determination on the record. The trial court shall cause a transcript of any hearing on remand to be prepared at public expense and filed within 21 days after completion of the proceedings. Defendant may file a supplemental brief pertaining to the issues raised on remand within 21 days after entry of the trial court's order deciding the matter or 21 days after the transcript of the hearing is filed, whichever is later. Plaintiff may file a brief in response.

The time for proceeding with the appeal shall begin to run 14 days after the date of this order if a motion to initiate the proceedings on remand is not filed in the trial court within that 14-day period.

The motion to extend time to bring trial court motion is DENIED as moot in light of the relief provided as to the motion to amend or re-issue motion to remand.

Meter, J., would deny the motion.
