ORDER

In re Norma C Zarske Revocable Living Trust

Docket No. 336399

LC No. 15-016022-TV

---

Michael J. Talbot, Chief Judge, acting under MCR 7.203(F)(1), orders:

The claim of appeal is DISMISSED for lack of jurisdiction because it cannot be considered timely filed from the order appealed from. For present purposes the date of “entry” of a judgment or order “means the date a judgment or order is signed, or the date that data entry of the judgment or order is accomplished in the issuing tribunal’s register of actions.” MCR 7.204(A). The claim of appeal was not timely filed under MCR 7.204(A)(1)(a) within 21 days after the order appealed from was signed on December 9, 2016, even recognizing that the 21-day period was extended to January 3, 2017 by MCR 1.108(1) due to this Court’s New Year’s holidays. Further, the copy of the lower court register of actions provided with the claim of appeal reflects that the order appealed from had not yet been entered in the register of actions when the claim of appeal was filed, so the claim of appeal was not filed within the 21-day period allowed after data entry of the order in the lower court register of actions is accomplished. Accordingly, appellants may timely file a claim of appeal from the relevant lower court order within 21 days after the date it is entered in the lower court register of actions.
