

Court of Appeals, State of Michigan
ORDER

People of MI v Stephen Michael Bieszka

Docket No. 337977

LC No. 16-019842-FH

Michael J. Talbot, Chief Judge, acting under MCR 7.203(F)(1), orders:

The claim of appeal is DISMISSED for lack of jurisdiction. The judgment of sentence, which was signed on March 29, 2017 and entered on the register of actions on March 30, 2017, was based upon a plea of guilty or no contest to a crime committed after December 27, 1994, and is therefore not appealable as a matter of right. MCR 7.203(A)(1)(b). Further, to the extent that defendant is attempting to appeal the March 6, 2017 order denying him an exemption from the Sex Offenders Registration Act (SORA), the claim of appeal is untimely. The March 6, 2017 order is a final order appealable by right. MCL 28.723a(6). MCR 7.204(A)(2)(c) requires an appeal of right in a criminal case to be taken within 42 days after entry of the order appealed from. Here, the April 18, 2017 claim of appeal was filed 43 days after entry of the March 6, 2017 order, and thus, the claim of appeal was not timely from that order.
