The Court ORDERS that in lieu of granting leave to appeal, this case is REMANDED to the trial court for entry of an amended judgment of sentence that does not impose court costs on defendant. MCR 7.205(E)(2). Given the trial court's express statement at sentencing that it was not imposing court costs on defendant it is apparent that the imposition of $300 in court costs in the judgment of sentence was a clerical error and that we should remand this case to the trial court for correction of that clerical error. MCR 7.216(A)(7). In all other respects the delayed application for leave to appeal is DENIED for lack of merit in the grounds presented.

We do not retain jurisdiction.

Jansen, J., would grant the application for leave to appeal based on the trial court's failure to make specific findings in support of its imposition of a consecutive sentence pursuant to People v Norfleet, 317 Mich App 649, 654; 897 NW2d 195 (2016).
