Judges

On the Court's own motion, in lieu of dismissing the claim of appeal for lack of jurisdiction because it was not timely filed within 21 days after entry of the August 18, 2017 order appealed from, MCR 7.204(A)(1)(a), the claim of appeal is treated as a delayed application for leave to appeal. Appellant shall file five copies of a brief in support of the delayed application and proof of service of that brief on all other parties in the case within 56 days after the date of this order. Appellee or any other party in the case may file an answer within 21 days after service of appellant's supporting brief. See MCR 7.205(C). If such an answer is filed appellant may file a reply brief within 21 days after service of the answer. See MCR 7.205(D); MCR 7.212(G). Thereafter, the delayed application will be submitted for a decision under MCR 7.205(E).

Failure to comply with this order may result in dismissal of the appeal.
