This case returns to this Court on remand from our Supreme Court “for consideration of any remaining appellate issues.” Marlette Auto Wash, LLC v Van Dyke SC Properties, LLC, ___ Mich ___, ___; ___ NW2d ___ (2018); slip op at 17-18. In light of this directive by our Supreme Court, each party may file with the Clerk of this Court and serve upon the other party a supplemental brief no later than 28 days after the certification of this order, which identifies and addresses the issues, if any, that remain for this Court to consider on remand. The supplemental briefs shall be limited to 30 pages and must address whether such issues are preserved, and whether they might have been waived for failure to raise them in the original briefing filed in this Court. Each party shall have 21 days in which to file a responsive brief to the other party’s supplemental brief. If the parties agree that there are no issues remaining for this Court to consider on remand, the parties may file a stipulation to close this appeal.
