In our November 21, 2017, opinion and order, this Court vacated the order terminating respondent-appellant's parental rights and remanded, while retaining jurisdiction, for assignment to a new referee to consider whether respondent's parental rights should be terminated. The trial court conducted the remand proceedings and, based on the findings of the new referee, ordered that the supplemental petition requesting termination of respondent's parental rights be denied. The trial court's order on remand having rendered any remaining issues on appeal moot, this matter is DISMISSED. The Court does not retain jurisdiction.
