The Court orders that the motion to adjourn is GRANTED. The Clerk's office is directed to place the matter on the next available case call. Further, the parties are notified in writing at least 21 days before their case is heard as to the date, location, and panel that will hear the case. The Court encourages parties to notify the Clerk's Office of limitations in their availability when those limitations become known.

Further, counsel should provide this Court's Clerk's Office notice of conflicts well in advance, and before a panel is assigned, particularly where the trip has been "long-planned." Adherence to this avoids unnecessary adjournments of oral argument.
