Pursuant to MCR 7.205(E)(2), the Court directs Prosecutor Michael Brown to file an answer to the motion for reconsideration within 21 days of the date of this order. The answer is to address the validity of the plea agreement in light of: (1) the stipulated motion for withdrawal of plea, signed by Prosecutor Allison Arnold, wherein the People admit that an inducement for the plea was discussed in chambers before sentencing, (2) the plea agreement signed by Prosecutor Arnold on January 30, 2017, indicating that the People agreed that defendant's minimum sentence would be set at 117 months, and (3) Prosecutor Brown's admission in the answer to the motion to withdraw that the People made such an offer to defendant before sentencing. Alternately, Prosecutor Brown may file a confession of error pursuant to MCR 7.211(C)(7).

The motion for reconsideration is HELD IN ABEYANCE pending receipt of the People's pleading.

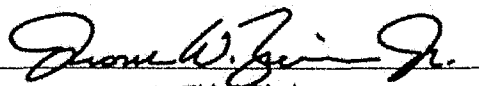

The motion to delay submission of the motion for reconsideration is DENIED AS MOOT, the motion for reconsideration having been submitted before the filing of the motion to delay submission.
