ORDER

People of MI v Jordan Christopher Danski

Docket No. 340762

LC No. 2016-000325-FH

Kathleen Jansen
Presiding Judge

Deborah A. Servitto

Elizabeth L. Gleicher
Judges

The Court orders that the pro per motion to remand filed in relation to the Standard 4 brief is DENIED IN PART, as to defendant's claim that trial counsel was ineffective based on a violation of his right to a speedy trial for failure to persuade the Court of the necessity of a remand at this time, and is GRANTED IN PART for an evidentiary hearing as to defendant's claims that trial counsel was ineffective for failing to contact or interview alibi witnesses, and so that he may file a motion for new trial or other appropriate relief in that regard. Thus, this case is REMANDED to the trial court for further proceedings consistent with this order.

Defendant shall initiate the proceedings on remand within 14 days of the date of this order. The Court retains jurisdiction and the time for proceeding with the appeal in this Court shall begin to run upon issuance of an order in the trial court that disposes of the remand proceedings. Defendant shall file with this Court a copy of any motion and supporting brief filed in the trial court within 14 days after the date of this order. Defendant shall also file with the Clerk of this Court copies of all orders entered on remand within 14 days after entry. The trial court shall hear and decide the matter within 56 days of the date of this order. The trial court shall make an appropriate determination on the record. The trial court shall cause a transcript of any hearing on remand to be prepared at public expense and filed within 21 days after completion of the proceedings. Defendant may file a supplemental brief pertaining to the issues raised on remand within 21 days after entry of the trial court's order deciding the matter or 21 days after the transcript of the hearing is filed, whichever is later. Plaintiff may file a supplemental brief in response.

The time for proceeding with the appeal shall begin to run 14 days after the date of this order if a motion to initiate the proceedings on remand is not filed in the trial court within that 14-day period.
