

Court of Appeals, State of Michigan

ORDER

Annette Renee Wyler v Bayview Loan Servicing LLC

Docket No. 342750

LC No. 2017-010021-CH

Michael J. Talbot, Chief Judge, acting under MCR 7.203(F)(1), orders:

The claim of appeal is DISMISSED IN PART for lack of jurisdiction as to the February 15, 2018 order denying appellants' objections to the judgment and the award of sanctions because that order is not a final order appealable of right. MCR 7.202(6)(a); MCR 7.203(A). Further, the claim of appeal cannot be treated as timely filed as to the underlying January 18, 2018 order granting summary disposition in favor of appellees because, assuming that the "objections" to that order filed in the trial court should be viewed as a motion for reconsideration, the objections were not filed within 21 days after entry of the January 18, 2018 order and the trial court did not allow further time for filing a motion for postjudgment relief within that 21-day period. MCR 7.204(A)(1)(b). At this time, appellants may seek to appeal the January 18, 2018 order and/or the February 15, 2018 order denying their objections to the January 18, 2018 order by filing a delayed application for leave to appeal under MCR 7.205(G).

The claim of appeal remains pending as to the February 15, 2018 order granting appellee Bayview Loan Servicing, LLC's $6,537.97 in attorney fees and costs.
