RE: PEOPLE OF MI V WILBERT BUSH
Court of Appeals No. 341328
Lower Court No. 17-007854-01-AR

Dear Counsel:

According to our records, the Prosecutor's brief was served on you, and you have not filed a brief on behalf of the defendant although you were appointed to represent the defendant and the time has expired for filing a responsive brief.

You must file a brief on behalf of defendant-appellee within 21 days of the date of this letter to avoid the assessment of $250 costs and the possible remand of the case to the trial court for the appointment of substitute counsel. Filings received after the 21st day may be accepted if the matter has not yet been submitted to the Court, but costs will be assessed.

Yours very truly,

John P. Lowe
District Clerk
