ORDER

In re Jan H Pol DVM

Docket No. 344666

LC No. 16-035858

Michael F. Gadola, Judge, acting under MCR 7.211(E)(2), orders:

The motion to strike is GRANTED, and appellant's brief on appeal is STRICKEN based on its numerous references to the unofficial transcripts of the March 2018 and June 2018 meetings of the Disciplinary Subcommittee of the Board of Veterinary Medicine prepared by a court reporter hired by appellant. Those transcripts cannot reasonably be considered documents or files of the Disciplinary Subcommittee so as to be part of the record under MCR 7.210(A)(2) where it is manifest they were not prepared pursuant to established procedures of the Disciplinary Subcommittee and do not include transcription of testimony. They are also plainly not opinions or orders of the Disciplinary Subcommittee. Other provisions cited by appellant do not reasonably support treating the unofficial transcripts in question as part of the record.

Appellant shall file a replacement appellant's brief on appeal within 21 days after the date of this order, which shall be deemed timely filed if filed within that 21-day period. The time for filing appellee's brief on appeal under MCR 7.212(A)(2)(a)(ii) shall run from the date of service of appellant's replacement brief on appeal.
