The Court orders that in lieu of granting the delayed application for leave to appeal, this case is REMANDED to the trial court for further proceedings consistent with this order, MCR 7.205(E)(2), because the trial court imposed $1,100 in court costs without articulating the factual basis for imposing those costs. People v Konopka, 309 Mich App 345, 359-360; 869 NW2d 651 (2015). On remand, the trial court shall articulate a factual basis for the imposition of $1,100 in court costs. Alternatively, the trial court may enter an amended judgment of sentence imposing a lesser amount of court costs if it concludes there is not a proper factual basis to support an award of $1,100 in court costs.

We do not retain jurisdiction.
