Stephen L. Borrello
Judges

The motion to amend order of remand to include new issue is GRANTED. To the extent that the issues raised in this motion are not already in the scope of our prior expansion of the remand proceedings in our December 13, 2018 order the trial court is directed to consider those issues in the ongoing remand proceedings in this case. Further, defendant shall be allowed to participate in the remand proceedings regarding co-defendant Robert Conley, III, which the trial court may accomplish by jointly conducting some or all of the further ongoing remand proceedings as to the two defendants.
