ORDER

People of MI v Joseph William Inwood

Docket No. 340225

The motion for immediate consideration is GRANTED.

The motion to remand to withdraw as appellate counsel is DENIED. We conclude that there is not a showing of good cause for defendant to seek appointment of another substitute appellate counsel and that a remand for that purpose would be unreasonably disruptive to the judicial process. See People v Mack, 190 Mich App 7, 14; 475 NW2d 830 (1991).
