The motions to dismiss are GRANTED. The March 5, 2018, order granting summary disposition in favor of Comerica Bank was the final order in this case under MCR 7.202(6)(a)(i). Plaintiff-appellant would have had a claim of appeal from this final order but she failed to file a claim of appeal within 21 days of the March 5, 2018 order. The September 26, 2018 order was a post-judgment order. It did not resolve any claims against any of the defendants because no claims were left to be resolved at the time the September 26, 2018 order was entered. Although the September 26, 2018 order does contain language to indicate that it is a "final order," it is well settled the trial court's certification that an order is final is not controlling on this Court. Faircloth v Family Independence Agency, 232 Mich App 391, 400-401; 591 NW2d 314 (1998).
