The Court orders that, in lieu of granting the delayed application for leave to appeal, MCR 7.205(E)(2), this case is REMANDED to the trial court to consider and make specific findings on the record regarding defendant's challenges to the probation department's scoring of offense variables 3, 4, and 13 of the sentencing guidelines. MCR 6.425(E)(2). The trial court failed to specifically address defendant's challenges to the scoring of those variables at the sentencing hearing despite noting that he challenged the probation department's scoring of those variables. If the trial court changes the scoring of one or more of those offense variables and the corrected scoring affects the sentencing guidelines range the trial court shall resentence defendant. People v Francisco, 474 Mich 82, 89-90; 711 NW2d 44 (2006). If the trial court does not change the scoring of any of the offense variables in question, or if its correction as to any of the variables does not affect the sentencing guidelines range, it shall enter an order reaffirming defendant's sentences.
