On the Court's own motion pursuant to MCR 7.216(A)(7), the Court orders these cases are CONSOLIDATED to advance the efficient administration of the appellate process.

In our June 11, 2019 opinion and order in docket no. 347103, this Court vacated the December 4, 2018 termination order and remanded to the trial court "solely for the family court to make findings under the amended version of MCL 712A.19b(3)(g)." We retained jurisdiction "for the purpose of reviewing the court's findings under the amended version of the statute" and to then "review respondent's challenge to the court's best-interests determination." On remand, the trial court entered an order again terminating respondent's parental rights and the claim of appeal in docket no. 349844 was filed from that order.

Given that the appeal in docket no. 349844 arises out of the limited remand proceedings, in lieu of the parties filing supplemental briefs following remand in docket number 347103, the Court orders that respondent-appellant shall file appellant's brief in docket no. 349844 within 21 days of the filing of the transcript of the July 2 and 9, 2019 hearings on remand. Appellee's brief is due within 14 days of service of appellant's brief. The parties' briefs may not exceed 20 pages, but shall comply with MCR 7.212(B)-(D) in all other respects. The clerk is directed to submit the consolidated appeals to this panel for decision without oral argument after the time for filing appellee's brief has run. MCR 7.214(E).
