

STATE OF MICHIGAN
COURT OF APPEALS

In the Matter of SYLVIA LEE CAMPBELL,
JOSEPH TODD CAMPBELL, SOPHIA LEE
CAMPBELL, and MICHAEL JOEY
CAMPBELL, Minors.

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL SERVICES,

Petitioner-Appellee,

v

KELLEY CAMPBELL,

Respondent-Appellant.

UNPUBLISHED
March 11, 1997

No. 191581
Jackson Probate Court
LC No. 94-17977

Before: Griffin, P.J., and McDonald and C. W. Johnson*, JJ.

PER CURIAM.

Respondent appeals an order terminating her parental rights to her four children pursuant to MCL 712A.19(b)(3)(g)(h); MSA 27.3178(598.19b)(g)(h).

The court did not clearly err in finding clear and convincing evidence to support termination of respondent's rights under subsection (3)(h). The testimony showed respondent was in prison for armed robbery, her earliest outdate is February 7, 1998, and no suitable placement with a friend or relative was presented to the court. Respondent's mother was determined to be unable to provide proper care for the children due to her inability to provide structure, a suitable living arrangement, and her need to avoid adversarial situations.

The record further supports the court's finding by clear and convincing evidence the termination of respondent's rights under subsection (3)(g). The evidence clearly showed respondent was unable to appropriately discipline the children and provide proper care, custody and shelter for them.

* Circuit judge, sitting on the Court of Appeals by assignment.

We further conclude the court did not abuse its discretion in terminating respondent's parental rights. In re Jackson, 199 Mich App 22; 501 NW2d 182 (1993).

Affirmed.
