Before: Murray, P.J., and Sawyer and Smolenski, JJ.

MURRAY, P.J. (concurring in part, dissenting in part)

I concur in the majority's resolution of plaintiff's issues against the hospital defendants. Additionally, I concur in the majority's resolution of the claims against the media defendants, except as it pertains to plaintiff's claims of public disclosure of private facts and intrusion upon seclusion. It is not that I necessarily disagree with the analysis, but instead would not address these issues. Plaintiff has abandoned on appeal the trial court's dismissal of these two torts because her brief on appeal contains no citation to authority and no argument about these specific torts. Having failed to brief the trial court's dismissal of these claims, they are abandoned. FMB – First Michigan Bank v Bailey, 232 Mich App 711, 717; 591 NW2d 676 (1998); Check Reporting Services, Inc v Michigan Nat Bank – Lansing, 191 Mich App 614, 628; 478 NW2d 893 (1991); MCR 7.212(A)(7). For this reason, I would also affirm the trial court's grant of summary disposition on these two claims.
