

IN THE MICHIGAN COURT OF APPEALS

ORDER

Re: People of MI v David S Aslani
Docket No. 280905
L.C. No. 05-000471-FH

William C. Whitbeck, Chief Judge, acting under MCR 7.203(F)(1) and 7.216(A)(10), orders:

The application for leave to appeal and motion to compel are DISMISSED for lack of jurisdiction because the lower court has not entered an order for which defendant can appeal. The Court has contacted the Ingham County Circuit Court and was told that no order was entered requiring defendant to pay $200.00. An appeal requires an order. See MCR 7.202(3), 7.203(B), and 7.205(A). The Court would note that if an order had been promptly entered following sentencing, this application for leave to appeal would have been dismissed as untimely filed since this application was filed more than a year after defendant was sentenced.
