People of MI v Corey Jay Boughton

Docket No. 312030

The Court orders that the delayed application for leave to appeal is DENIED for lack of merit in the grounds presented. The trial court sentenced defendant consistent with the sentencing agreement, so it was not required to offer defendant the opportunity to withdraw his plea. People v Killebrew, 416 Mich 189, 330 NW2d 834 (1982). Furthermore, the agreement gave defendant the opportunity to petition the trial court to have the offense reduced to a misdemeanor, but there is no evidence that defendant ever availed himself of that opportunity.
