Wayne Circuit Court

Family Division

LC No. 91-295645

Before: Cooper, P.J., and Bandstra and Talbot, JJ.

MEMORANDUM.

Respondent-appellant appeals as of right from the circuit court order terminating his parental rights to the minor children under MCL 712A.19b(3)(b)(ii), (g) and (j). We affirm. The case is being decided without oral argument pursuant to MCR 7.214(E).

The circuit court did not clearly err in finding that the statutory grounds for termination were established by clear and convincing evidence. MCR 5.974(I); In re Miller, 433 Mich 331, 337; 445 NW2d 161 (1989). Two years after his children were brought into foster care for abuse and neglect, the newborn, L.K.W., was removed from respondent-appellant's home for neglect. Despite the services offered, respondent-appellant showed no signs of being able to provide proper care for even one child. Thus, the circuit court did not err in terminating respondent-appellant's parental rights to the children.

Affirmed.
